

Continuing Medical Education Grants and Sponsorships

Name of Recipient	Program Name	Program Description	Amount
University of Cincinnati	Preventing Stroke in Atrial Fibrillation	CME program to be offered as an interactive, case-based online virtual meeting aimed at overcoming practice gaps among physicians treating patients with AF, with the ultimate goal of improving care of patients with AF.	$95,172.00
University of Cincinnati	Stroke Risk Reduction in High-Risk AFIB Patients Defining Clinical Options to Optimize Patient Outcomes	CME program to provide healthcare professionals with the latest clinical evidence surrounding pharmacologic interventions for preventing new onset and recurrent strokes in patients with AF, and to explore the optimization of post-discharge treatments and patient education.	$90,000.00
Medtelligence, LLC	Hot Topic Crossfire on Anticoagulation in AF: You Be The Judge™	Live CME symposium with enduring activity to evaluate the potential clinical value of recent large-scale randomized clinical trials and other data on the management of stroke prevention in patients with AF. The focus is to understand the clinical trials, compare and contrast the information they provide, and discuss their potential clinical utility.	$100,000.00
EOCI Pharmacomm Ltd.	Arrhythmia Update	A multi-day conference to provide educational programs in cardiology with many important topics including prevention of stroke in AF, managing bleeding with NOAC antidotes, real world data from registries, and treatment of special patient cases.	$114,975.00
University of Florida	Vascular Biology Working Group US Chapter Meeting	A 1-day conference in cardiovascular medicine, to provide attendees an important update on the new science shaping the practice of cardiovascular medicine and to provide an opportunity for high-level discussion of the data presented, with the goal to improve clinical decision-making and health care delivery.	$30,000.00
American College of Cardiology Foundation	Preventing Preventable Strokes II: A Data-Driven National Quality Improvement Initiative	A quality improvement program to engage hospitals, providers, and their practices in an effort that identifies anticoagulant treatment gaps and drives guidelines-based quality improvement	$250,000.00

Continuing Medical Education Grants and Sponsorships

Name of Recipient	Program Name	Program Description	Amount
American Academy of Pain Medicine Foundation	American Academy of Pain Medicine Foundation	A fellowship scholarship program to award current pain fellows attendance to attend a pain management-focused educational program, expanding their educational exposure in pain medicine with leaders in the field of pain medicine.	$10,000.00
C-MEducation Resources	New Advances and Patient-Centric Treatment Approaches for Optimizing Management of Stroke Prevention in NVAF	A live and enduring web-based, case-based interactive scientific and clinical educational program, focused on aligning specific NOACs with unique, real-world clinical profiles in AF, co-morbid risk features, and patient-centric factors.	$347,000.00
Sir Mortimer B. Davis Jewish General Hospital	CanVECTOR	An initiative to generate new knowledge through research innovation of VTE researchers in Canada to discover causes and to improve prevention and treatment of VTE and related disorders.	$100,000.00
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy	Rutgers University/Daiichi Sankyo Pharmaceutical Industry Fellowship Grant	Fellowship program designed to provide hands-on training in Medical Affairs and prepare pharmacists for challenging positions within the pharmaceutical industry.	$82,005.00
St. John's University	Pharmaceutical Industry Fellowship in Regulatory/Clinical Affairs	Pharmaceutical Industry Fellowship in Regulatory/Clinical Affairs July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2017	$119,092.00
American Pain Society	2016 APS Fundamentals of Pain Management: An Interdisciplinary Primer	A 2-day course aimed at residents to provide interdisciplinary learning and the social foundation for lifelong learning focused on pain management (pathophysiology, current pharmacologic approaches, risk management strategies to ensure patient safety, and implementing treatment plans).	$75,000.00
Rutgers, The State University of NJ	Rutgers University/Daiichi Sankyo Pharmaceutical Industry Fellowship Grant	Fellowship program designed to provide hands-on training in Marketing Sciences and prepare pharmacists for challenging positions within the pharmaceutical industry.	$161,070.00

Continuing Medical Education Grants and Sponsorships

Name of Recipient	Program Name	Program Description	Amount
Clinical Care Options, LLC	A Focus on AML: Applying the Latest Research to Individualize Therapy	A live, satellite symposium to take place in conjunction with the 2016 ASH Annual Meeting, plus online enduring materials. Program will educate on applying emerging predictive and prognostic factors to optimize patient care, evaluate therapies based on current guidelines and clinical data for AML, and discuss recent clinical research on emerging therapies for the treatment of patients with AML.	$35,000.00
Montefiore Medical Center	Anticoagulation in the Era of Newer Target-Specific Oral Agents	A live, virtual symposium and enduring activity aimed at educating cardiologists on barriers to achieving guideline-recommended anticoagulation, improving understanding of the appropriate selection and use of anticoagulant agents to achieve therapeutic anticoagulation, and describing the clinical profile of reversal agents.	$30,000.00
Hackensack University	Advances in Hepatocellular and Biliary Diseases 2016	A live educational program designed to provide physicians and other healthcare providers with a review of the advances in the diagnosis and management of hepatobiliary diseases, including hepatocellular carcinoma, to address current knowledge gaps including new and emerging surgical, trans-arterial and systemic treatments.	$3,000.00
Medscape, LLC	CME-certified live Town Halls at ASCO GI 2017	Live Town Hall meetings and enduring activities to address frequently asked questions and challenges facing GI cancer care clinicians, educating on new and emerging therapies, managing patients and selecting treatments within the disease continuum, making appropriate and individualized treatment decisions, and understanding and addressing treatment-related adverse effects in the management of individuals with GI cancers.	$32,000.00
UMA Education Inc., dba Global Education Group	PAINWeek	This conference provides an educational platform with differentiated access points to educate highly relevant specialists and primary care practitioners with an interest in pain management.	$25,000.00

Continuing Medical Education Grants and Sponsorships

Name of Recipient	Program Name	Program Description	Amount
National Stroke Association	Atrial Fibrillation Patient Advocacy Alliance Year 2	The National Stroke Association formed an alliance aimed to educate AFib patients on the importance of managing AFib to prevent stroke (via microsite and planned expansion). Objectives include disease state education, improving the patient and provider conversation about AFib and appropriate disease management to prevent stroke, providing a clearinghouse of best in class patient education tools and resources, and building upon a strong alliance of patient advocacy organizations to create a unified voice for AFib education, resources, and tools.	$10,000.00
UMA Education Inc., dba Global Education Group	Delving Deeper into the Complexities and Perplexities of Oral Anticoagulation	AHA live satellite symposium and webcast with enduring activity designed to engage in the complex decision-making that is necessary to safely and effectively initiate and manage NOAC therapy in eligible patients.	$60,000.00
The American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation	2016 AAPM&R Annual Assembly	This conference brings together physical medicine and rehabilitation physicians to increase understanding of scientific, clinical and health care issues with the goal of improving the impact of the specialty on patient care.	$10,000.00
University of Florida	Vascular Biology Working Group Global Chapter Meeting	Global Chapter Meeting with enduring materials to provide attendees an important update on the new science shaping the practice of cardiovascular medicine and to provide an opportunity for high-level discussion of the data presented, with the goal to improve clinical decision-making and health care delivery.	$10,000.00
Critical Path Institute	Research for use of electronic data collection in clinical trials	Critical Path Institute's PRO Consortium's ePRO Subcommittee and ePRO Consortium will explore the comparability of responses and compliance with bring your own device vs. provisioned device in a randomized, observational, cross-over study in chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.	$18,900.00

Continuing Medical Education Grants and Sponsorships

Name of Recipient	Program Name	Program Description	Amount
Algiatry, LLC	Aches and Gains Radio Show	Nationwide radio talk show and podcast that focuses on the topic of pain, to increase awareness and education among healthcare professionals, patients and their families.	$35,000.00